PRELUDE:

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Confession and Forgiveness

P: Blessed be the holy Trinity, ✠ one God,
our dwelling place for all generations,
whose compassion never slumbers.

C: Amen.

P: Let us confess our sin in the presence of God
and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Holy God,

C: we confess that we have trusted in our preparation
instead of your invitation.

We prioritize our piety over care for your beloved.

We trust the voice of our shame and fear, which keeps us from entering fully into relationship with you and others.

We are not awake to the coming of your reign.

Rouse us and rescue us,
that we may enter into your joy.

Amen.

P: Inherit the riches of God's grace.

✠ Jesus, the good shepherd, feeds you with his mercy.

You are forgiven.

Blessed are you.

C: Amen.

WORD

Reading: Revelation 7:9-17

Our first reading is from the book of Revelation, the 7th chapter.

R: ⁹ After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. ¹⁰ They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

“Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne and to the Lamb!”

¹¹ And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹² singing,

“Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

¹³ Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?” ¹⁴ I said to him, “Sir, you are the one who knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

¹⁵ For this reason they are before the throne of God
and worship him day and night within his temple,
and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.

¹⁶ They will hunger no more and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat,

¹⁷ for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,

and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

R: The word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalm: Psalm 34:1-10, 22

R: ¹ I will bless the Lord at all times;
the praise of God shall ever be in my mouth.

C: ² I will glory in the Lord;
let the lowly hear and rejoice.

R: ³ Proclaim with me the greatness of the Lord;
let us exalt God’s name together.

C: ⁴ I sought the Lord, who answered me
and delivered me from all my terrors.

R: ⁵ Look upon the Lord and be radiant,
and let not your faces be ashamed.

C: ⁶ I called in my affliction, and the Lord heard me
and saved me from all my troubles.

R: ⁷ The angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear the Lord and delivers them.

C: ⁸ Taste and see that the Lord is good;
happy are they who take refuge in God!

R: ⁹ Fear the Lord, you saints of the Lord,
for those who fear the Lord lack nothing.

C: ¹⁰ The lions are in want and suffer hunger,
but those who seek the Lord lack nothing that is good.

R: ²² O Lord, you redeem the life of your servants, and those who put their trust in you will not be punished.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-3

R: Our second reading is from the 3rd chapter of 1st John.

R: ¹ See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God, and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. ² Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. ³ And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

R: The word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

⁴ “Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

⁵ “Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

⁶ “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

PREFACE

P: It is indeed right to give you our thanks and praise, O God,
for we have tasted your goodness,
and our lives are secure in your hands.

It is indeed right to give you our thanks and praise, O God, for you bring all who trust in you out of the great ordeal
into the glorious reward of heaven and number them among the multitude of your saints.

You created the earth as an inheritance and destined all life for a glory that is yet to be revealed.
Through the law and your prophets and apostles
you called a people from every nation, tribe and language.

In your child, Jesus, you revealed your desire to bless the poor in spirit and the pure of heart;
to wipe away the tears of those who mourn;
and to satisfy all hunger for righteousness and peace.
Though he was persecuted and killed,
you raised him to life,
and with him you are saving all who keep faith
so that they may be like him
when his final glory is revealed.

And so, with all the choirs of angels,
with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

The musical score is written on four staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below each staff. The first staff contains the first line of the hymn, the second and third staves contain the second line, and the fourth staff contains the third line. The music concludes with a double bar line.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na. Ho - san-na. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san - na in the high - est.

THANKSGIVING AT THE TABLE

P: Holy, mighty, and merciful Lord, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
In great love you sent to us Jesus, your Son,
who reached out to heal the sick and suffering,
who preached good news to the poor,
and who, on the cross, opened his arms to all.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore, his death, resurrection, and ascension,
we await his coming in glory.

Pour out upon us the Spirit of your love, O Lord,
and unite the wills of all who share this heavenly food,
the body and blood of Jesus Christ, our Lord;
to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit,
be all honor and glory
now and forever.

C: Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.
